

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

VS.

GUADALUPE WEBB,

Defendant.

Case Number 8:12CR282

DETENTION ORDER

This case is before the court on the issue of detention. The defendant, Guadalupe Webb appeared on October 31, 2012 for an appearance on a Superseding Indictment. The defendant had earlier appeared on his indictment and at that time was in state custody, thus the issue of detention was held in abeyance. During the October 31 hearing, the government moved for detention and the defendant, noting that his state custody was concluded and he was now formally in federal custody, moved the court for his release to an extended residential substance abuse program at Williams Prepared Place. After considering the defendant's Pretrial Services report (#38), the confidential substance abuse evaluation recommending treatment, the October 29, 2012 letter from Williams Prepared Place accepting the defendant, and the October 29, 2012 Pretrial Services memorandum recommending the defendant's detention, I find the defendant should be detained.

The defendant has a substantial criminal record including four prior felony drug convictions, and the defendant has had two prior opportunities to deal with his admitted chemical dependency. I find that given his prior record, his substance abuse history, and his failed treatments, that he has failed to rebut the presumption of detention under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).

A. Order For Detention

X After conducting a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f) of the Bail Reform Act, the Court orders the above-named defendant detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e) and (l).

 X (5) Rebuttable Presumptions

In determining that the defendant should be detained, the Court also relied on the following rebuttable presumption(s) contained in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e) which the Court finds the defendant has not rebutted:

- _____ (a) That no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of any other person and the community because the Court finds that the crime involves:
